Like My Father

PASTOR DAVE

I hear it from my wife, Kim, at times, "You look like your father." There is no denying that I resemble my father. I love my dad, so having someone say that I look like him doesn't bother me. However, you might be surprised when Kim is most prone to say those words. It comes when I get off the floor or after I am been sitting for a while and it is taking me a while to get my bones and muscles limbered up. In other words, she says I look like my dad when I move slowly—more like an older person. So, I don't know if it is really a compliment when my wife says I look like my dad.

There are other ways I am like my father—I use certain expressions, employ similar mannerism, and have a comparable work ethic. Recently, as I was thinking about my earthly father, my thoughts turned to my heavenly Father. My prayer was that I would be like Him. But what is God like?

Our heavenly Father gives. He is generous. He is lavishly generous.

That is what God is like. Look what He did it with his own Son, Jesus. He gave him away. He gave him to the world. He did not keep him locked up in the heavenly throne room. He did not keep him safe behind the heavenly palace gates. No, "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life," (John 3:16).

Voters' Meeting Results

BSLC had their voters meeting on Sunday, Sept. 25. Gordon Swanson was elected to be the lay delegate to the ND District convention in January and Pastor Dave was chosen to be the pastoral delegate.

God generously gave. Because of the gift of His Son and our trust in Jesus, you and I receive the gift of being true children of God.

The LORD not only gives us spiritual blessings. In every other way, He also gives. James writes in his letter: "Every good present and every perfect gift comes from above, from the Father who made the sun, moon and stars," (James 1:17a).

We are about two months away from our national day of Thanksgiving. However, I believe that every day we should be thankful for all that God gives to us. Martin Luther says the same thing as he gives insight into the fourth petition of the Lord's Prayer:

Give us this day our daily bread

What does this mean?

God certainly gives daily bread to everyone without our prayers, even to all evil people, but we pray in this petition that God would lead us to realize this and to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

Our heavenly Father gives. He is generous. He is lavishly generous.

At the beginning of my article, I shared how I at times am like my earthly father. But my hope is that I become more like my heavenly Father.

There are numerous ways for me to imitate and with the power of the Holy Spirit strive to reflect what God is like. But one major way for me to be like my heavenly father is to also be a generous giver.

What about you? In what ways do you reflect the character and goodness of our heavenly Father?

I pray that you would think about how you are living your life now and consider how you may in even a greater way reflect God's kindness. May I also share some ways for you to express being a generous giver by:

- ◆ Your praise to God with other Christians in worship.
- ◆ Your time and abilities to your neighbors who are in need.
- ◆ Your offering to the congregation so that the work of God's kingdom among us may continue and expand.
- ◆ Your prayers for others, our country and people around the world.

May we all become more like our generous giving heavenly Father.

Sunday Bible Study

"First Peter"

From 9:30—10:20 a.m.

We continue to explore the letter of First Peter on Sundays. Join us as we learn how to live in a world where Christianity is often ridiculed and persecuted.

Discovery Class

Mondays at 7 p.m.

We will be concluding our Discovery Class in October.

Second Corinthians Bible Study

"Strength in Weakness"

Tuesdays at 7 p.m.

Life is relational. We hope and hurt the most about relationships with people who matter to us. Should we tell the truth even if it hurts? Should we avoid confrontation? Should we share what is going on inside us even if it shows we are weak and struggling?

Second Corinthians is all about relationships—not perfect ones, but real ones. We invite you to attend this study and grow in your faith as we explore how - through Christ - our relationship with God and others can be strengthened.

Homeless and Hungry

Your support of our youth is needed as our youth take part in Homeless and Hungry this month. Ways you can help are listed below.

- ◆ Sponsor someone who is participating in Homeless and Hungry – Each participant is asked to raise $365, which is enough money to feed a homeless person for an entire year. Your commitment can range anywhere from $5 to $2,000. Please see Pastor Christ to sponsor our participants.
- ◆ Attend the all-city praise service from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 15, at Bluestem.
- ◆ Bring canned and boxed food and other assorted items to church on Sunday, Oct. 16. All food will go toward local food pantries and homeless shelters in an effort to feed those who need it the most.
- ◆ Join us in our community food drive and community service project from 2:45-5 p.m. on Saturday and 12:30-2:30 p.m. on Sunday.
- ◆ Pray. Pray that God would bless our efforts to reach out to the homeless with the love of Christ and for the participants who will endure a hard 30 hours. Ask the Lord to change hearts and minds – that we might recognize all the blessings God gives to us, especially the gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Ask that we might not only provide and share earthly

Thursday Morning Women's Study "Beauty of Mentoring - Growing Through Change"

The women's morning bible study will begin Thursday, Oct. 6. "The Beauty of Mentoring - Growing Through Change" will be the basis for the six-week study. We will meet every other Thursday at 9 a.m.

Change. It's the one changeless element of human life. Year-to-year, month-to-month, hour-to-hour--change is our constant companion. But so is the changeless Christ. In Him, we receive power to use the change in positive ways and to use our experiences with change as we mentor other Christian women who face changes we've already encountered. This study is designed to do both. Come for a time of fellowship and study of God's word. Cost of the material is $4. Any questions, call or talk to Loretta Swanson (236-1891).

LWML News

The LWML has two human care projects that we request help with at this time—we need prayer sponsors for confirmation students. Please talk to Mardi Schlichtmann if you would be able to pray for one student who is in confirmation and perhaps occasionally send them a card of encouragement or small gift, like candy or jewelry or a gift card. Our other project is "31 Days of Prayer" and is only in October since it is Clergy Appreciation Month. Please talk to Rhonda Hoge if you would be willing to pray for our pastors one day in October and let them know that and how much you are thankful for them by sending them a card and/or small gift. The dates of October 9-30 are available. Thanks!

Our next meeting is at 7 p.m. on Thursday, October 13 at the church. We would still love to have more women join us in Bible fellowship and service. We will be planning the food drive and our fund-raiser dinner, "Potato Bar & Jello Fest" along with a Book and Bake Sale from 5-7 p.m. on Friday, November 18.

Fall Rally for our Eastern Zone will be held from 10 a.m. - 2 pm. on Saturday, Oct. 15 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in north Fargo with the theme

"Delighted to Share." A luncheon will be served, and Ken Bunge will speak about his work with Lutheran Bible Translators. Men and women are encouraged to attend.

Quilting

There will be quilting from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Oct. 13 and 27. Bring any sewing materials and fabric you can and your sewing machine, if possible. Haven't tried quilting? Here's your chance to see what it all entails! You are welcome to come for an hour or stay all day!

Help battle hunger by supporting local shelter

Jesus calls us to have mercy on those suffering around us, and Beautiful Savior is sponsoring a unique opportunity for acts of mercy in our community. All families can help battle homelessness and its effects in the F-M area. On Sunday, many community resources are closed, and hunger becomes an issue. We need volunteers to prepare snacks and meals for residents at the Gladys Ray Shelter, 1519 First Ave. N in Fargo. Every week, we would like to provide – at minimum – one snack for the 36 residents of the shelter. If you would like to provide more in terms of a full meal, that also is encouraged. All food should be dropped off at 5:30 p.m. at the shelter or can be dropped off Sunday morning at the church. Sign up on the bulletin board located by the nursery or see Pastor Chris for more information.

Join Our Adult Choir

Practice on Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Through music, we are able to glorify God in a variety of styles. Through Christian hymns and songs, we are also able to encourage one another. In September, the adult choir of Beautiful Savior will begin rehearsals. We meet on Wednesdays from 7:30-8:30 p.m. at the church. Contact Ramsey Dahl, our director, at 237-9009 for more information. You may also just come to rehearsals.

District & Circuit Forum

Saturday, Oct. 15 beginning at 1 p.m.

The District is sponsoring a special forum to discuss proposed changes to the District bylaws. All who are interested are invited to come. After that meeting, there will be a circuit forum.

Reformation still a cause for celebrating the Gospel

Pastor Chris

Today, it's easy to make the general assumption that all theology is the same as long as Jesus is mentioned somehow. Our choice for a church home then can become all about externals, such as programs offered, fellowship, involvement, friend and family allegiance and other factors. That's not to say those things are bad. But the main criteria when seeking a church home must be faithfulness to the truth claims of God.

But so much theology these days is not centered on Christ's Gospel but on self-help, self-actualization, self-improvement with little or no mention of God working through the forgiveness of sins in Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit in the means of grace.

So much theology throws grace out the window and makes demands -- things that you must do so that God's salvation applies to you.

So much theology today seeks to reformulate what Scripture says. We have individuals, ruling bodies, books and ideas that have claimed the same authority as the Holy Scriptures, despite contradicting its message. Even worse, some churches have abandoned a Biblical worldview in favor of "scientific" reason and current concepts of what constitutes fairness and goodness.

We, like Luther, must see salvation as God's truth given to us, not a truth that we invent, improve, add on to or subtract from. Like the Bereans in Acts and many Christians before us, as we examine the Scriptures, we experience God's truth in Grace alone, faith alone, Scripture alone -- all of which points to Christ alone. Church is not about what the church can do for you, it's about what God has done for you in Jesus Christ. Ultimately, it's not about you, it's about Him!

As we celebrate the reformation this month, our joy does not rest on Luther, but on the proclamation God did through Luther. The true Gospel cannot be snuffed out. It cannot be obliterated. It breaks through the darkness, offering us the hope and joy we truly need each and every day. Now that's something to celebrate!

Pastor Chris

When Luther disseminated his 95 thesis to stir debate in the church nearly 500 years ago, it forever changed the landscape of theology. You might be tempted to think that event belongs relegated to the pages of history, but Luther's bold act has never been more relevant. Luther saw problems in the theology of the day, problems that ultimately compromised the gospel message. Today, error and falsehood run rampant as well.

The main themes of the reformation still must drive our theology today. Those themes were grace alone, faith alone and Scripture alone -- all of which pointed to Christ alone. God grants salvation to his people as a free gift through the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. God works and forms faith in you through the Holy Scriptures, through baptism and through the Lord's Supper. These means speak God's living and active election to you, calling and keep you in faith through the power of the Holy Spirit.

We might appreciate all the friends we have in a certain church, its closeness to our home, the learning opportunities it provides our kids, the enrichment and activities and community church provides, but if the church does not preach Christ crucified, all those things are only temporal blessings that have blinded us to the one thing needful, and that is the pure and true Gospel.
